

The MENTAL Declaration of Telepathic Euphoria

We, the joyfully unhinged citizens of Planet Earth, hereby declare that to be MENTAL is not to descend into darkness, but to ascend into light. MENTAL is our anthem, our broadcast, our cosmic frequency of optimism.

Article I – Mindset

We choose to see possibility where others see walls. A mental state is not a cage; it is a launchpad.

Article II – Energy

Our laughter is a renewable resource. Every giggle is a spark, every grin a power station. Optimism is not naive — it's nuclear.

Article III – Network

We are linked in ways Wi-Fi can only dream of. Thoughts are signals; love is bandwidth; empathy is the password.

Article IV – Telepathy

We believe in broadcasting joy mind-to-mind, heart-to-heart, absurdity-to-absurdity. If you can hear this, you're already tuned in.

Article V – Awakening

To go MENTAL is to awaken from the trance of cynicism. It is to remember that hope is contagious, humor is medicinal, and imagination is liberation.

Article VI – Light

We shine ridiculous radiance into the gloom. We are the neon bulbs of possibility, the sacred light fixtures of the cosmic comedy club.

Therefore: Let it be known that MENTAL is not madness but magnificence — a vehicle for optimistic thinking, a telepathic joy-broadcast, and a euphoria-projector capable of circling the globe.

Signed,

The Optimystical Grand Masters of MentalRadio
